It in such a situation is culture to give all credit to my mother for raising me something which she did just fine

The dreams were constant and persistent and at the time scary

On one side there was the traditional or rather normal aspect of my life which was and is credited to my mother in those terms indeed she raised me well better than my stealthy diabolical side deserved

I grew up well fed well clothed educated learned

And for those blessings my loyalty to my mother is strong even in her grave
